The most important conference in 2018 dedicated to new mobility!

In the name of the organizers: windhunter mobility, Zemmrich Consult and Ziarko & Partners Legal & Tax we hereby invite You to a participation in the conference ‘to be or not to be... - time for new mobility’ which will be held on June 7th 2018 in Shakespeare Theater in Gdańsk.

The different aspects and issues connected to new mobility will be discussed during the conference. The workshop is planned for over 100 participants, including municipal authorities, entrepreneurs and representatives of the major corporations from the sectors of energy, automotive and services. From an international perspective delegations from Tallin and Dresden being pioneers in revolutionary mobility projects will speak about their unique experiences. As one of the key speakers Professor Stephan Rammler, advisor to many of the major German automotive corporations as well as government institutions and author of many popular books regarding future mobility is going to present possible scenarios for a vision of mobility and transport in Poland and in particular for the Gdansk agglomeration in the coming thirty years.

The event provides the supreme occasion to converse with international business partners, exchange ideas and experience at a high management level as well as to build the constant and firm cooperation directly affecting the development of the company. The purpose is to build a platform consisting of companies and people connected to new mobility, distinguished by exceptional achievements, effectiveness and innovativeness.

Time for new mobility... there is also space for you!
